From: Paul Ericsson, Branch Manager, Bemidji Public Library

Seniors - Are You Interested in Learning Some Basics About Computers? Come Surf the Web With Us!

The Bemidji Public Library has been hosting an ongoing program for senior citizens titled Senior Surf.

This program is offered on the first and third Tuesday mornings and the first Thursday evening of the month to learn the basics about computers and using the internet. The next upcoming open dates are Tuesday mornings June 3 & 17 from 8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m., and Thursday June 5, 5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Space is limited so you will need to call the Library (218) 751-3963 to reserve your session. There is no charge for this event.

If you have always wanted to learn about computers and how to access the internet...now is your opportunity. Join others in a relaxed, comfortable atmosphere where you can learn new things about Medicare, Social Security, fun websites to check out information, etc.

This event is sponsored by the Land of the Dancing Sky Area Agency on Aging along with the Bemidji Public Library, a Branch of the Kitchigami Regional Library System.

For more information about Senior LinkAge Line please call the at 1-800-333-2433.

To book a space for the Senior Surf, please call the Library at 218-751-3963.
